3 WAYS you can work hand-in-hand to create a clean care culture.

1. Explain why clean care—starting with clean hands—is important to prevent healthcare-associated infections.

2. Clean your hands in front of patients, families and colleagues.

3. Listen to your patients and their family members, answer their questions, and ask for feedback.